RESIDENT SPOTLIGHT

Judy Ventimiglia

A life filled with love, adventures, and cherished memories.

Judy Ventimiglia was born on January 26, 1948, in Columbus, Ohio.

She spent 20 years working as a dog groomer in Florida, a career that was a perfect fit for her love of animals.

Judy has always had a special love for horses. She once had two of her own and especially enjoyed barrel riding.

While living in Florida, Judy met her husband, Daniel. The two shared 17 years of marriage together.

Judy also loves bowling and spent approximately 30 years participating in bowling tournaments in Las Vegas.

When it's time to relax, Judy enjoyed movies, dancing, romance, and Westerns.

Judy has been part of the Oak Manor family for about a year and a half, and we are so happy to have her with us!

Thank you, Judy, for sharing your story and being such a special part of our Oak Manor family!

HAPPY Grandparents DAY!

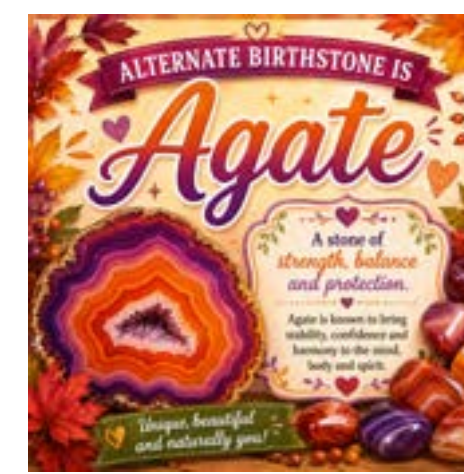

A special day to celebrate the love, wisdom and joy Grandparents bring to our lives!

FUN FACTS

Grandparents make the world a little softer, kinder and warmer!

- Grandparents Day is celebrated on the first Sunday after Labor Day in the United States.
- The word "grandparent" comes from the Latin words "grandis" (great) and "parens" (parent).
- Studies show that children who have close relationships with their grandparents are happier and feel more secure.
- Grandparents often have more patience, more time and lots of stories to share!
- Many grandparents help care for their grandchildren and play a big role in their lives.
- The world's oldest known grandparent was 127 years old!
- Grandparents pass down traditions, family history and important life lessons.
- A grandparent's hug lasts long after they let go.

Thank you, Grandparents, FOR YOUR LOVE THAT LASTS A LIFETIME!
