SPOTLIGHT on a Resident

Lisa O'Neil

Good
People
Make Our Community
Brighter!

Lisa O'Neil was born on May 16, 1963, in Boston, Massachusetts. She moved to Florida in her 20's and has enjoyed calling the Sunshine State home ever since.

Lisa's parents were Elaine Cole and Harvey Bialsky. She has one younger brother named Howard.

Lisa is married to James O'Neil and has one son, who is 19 years old.

Lisa worked as a buyer for Jabil and enjoyed traveling. One of her favorite trips was a honeymoon to Niagara Falls, a memory she still cherishes.

Lisa is a big fan of watching TV and movies. She loves the Buffalo Bills and enjoyed spending time with her dog, Lego. Lego was a service dog that helped with her autistic child, and they shared a very special bond.

Lisa has been at Oak Manor for three weeks and is already enjoying the community.

When asked what she likes about Oak Manor, Lisa shared, "Everything — from the staff, activities, outings, to the other residents."

Lisa enjoys many of the activities at Oak Manor, especially grocery outings, shopping trips, happy hour, and movies.

Welcome to Oak Manor!

Happy
Halloween
